

Miss Rosamond Lombard Wed in Switzerland

Miss Rosamond Lombard, daughter of Mrs. Percival H. Lombard of Brookline, was married Thursday to Mr. George Albert Vondermuhl, Jr., of New York city, at a colorful ceremony in Caux-sur-Montreux, Switzerland, attended by representatives of 35 nations who are attending the World Assembly for Moral Re-Armament. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Scoville Wishard of Indianapolis, Ind., and the Rev. Garrett R. Stearly of Montclair, N. J., and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, founder of Moral Re-Armament.

Switzerland and Miss Edith Shillington of Ireland. They were gowned in coral velvet and carried bouquets of gladioli and red roses.

Mr. W. Warner Clark of Philadelphia, Pa., was the best man and the ushers included Dr. Morris H. Martin of Oxford, England; Mr. Adam McLean, Mr. John Morrison and Mr. Thomas Gillespie of Scotland, and Mrs. Charles H. Rappard of Switzerland, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Lombard, the bride's mother, flew from Brookline for the wedding. Among the guests were James Haworth, British Member of Parlia-

The bride wore a cream satin gown with a Brussels lace veil and carried cream gladioli. Mrs. William C. Jaeger of London was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss*Jean Gemmell of Scotland; Miss Lucie Perrenoud of ment; Lady Dolland, wife of the former Lord Provost of Glasgow and editor of the Scottish Daily Herald, and Mrs. Will Lawther, wife of the President of the British Trades Union Congress.

Married with Miss Lombard and Mr. Vondermuhl in a double ceremony were their close friends and associates in the Moral Re-Armament program, Miss Pauline Alber Eastman of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. George Stuart Smith of Glasgow, Scotland. Following the ceremony the couples were entertained with national folk dances performed in colorful costumes by Swiss, Scandinavian and Scotch delegates to the assembly.

es It Again!!

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Fabyan and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hall Lombard. She attended the Winsor School and was graduated from Radcliffe College. Mr. Vondermuhl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Vondermuhl of New York city. He is a former member of the Economic Section of the International Labor Office in Geneva, and he and his wife will live in Caux-sur-Montreux until their work for the Moral Re-Armament program is completed.

The Boston Herald

Boston, MA

Sunday, October 3, 1948

Page 10, Columns 3 & 4