

firemen.

Miss Bessie M. Kelley, daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles T. Kelley of 56 South Central av. Wollaston, was married last night to Howard W. Baker, son of Mr and Mrs Charles T. Baker of Highland av. Wollaston. The ceremony was performed by Rev Frederick E. Buck, rector of St Chrysostom's Episcopal Church, Wollaston, at the home of the bride. The latter was attended by Miss Gertrude Baker of Watertown, N Y, and the groom was attended by Warren Baker of South Hanson. The wedding march was played by Miss Helen Hodge of Wollaston. Following the ceremony there was a reception. The couple, after a wedding trip, will make their home at 557 Pine st, Manchester, N H, where Mr Baker is the representative of a Boston business house.

CHATHAM

The Boston Globe

Boston, MA

Thursday, October 9, 1924

Page 11, Column 3