

Lois L. Hayes Is Bride of Elmer Lombard

*Wedding Is Held
Saturday Afternoon
At Ashby*

ASHBY.—Miss Lois LeGro Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther H. Hayes, Saturday afternoon became the bride of Elmer Ralph Lombard, son of Truman L. Lombard, 133 Strong Avenue, Pittsfield. The ceremony was performed at the Ashby Congregational Church by Rev. Ernest Eldridge, using a double ring service.

Miss Lucille Hayes was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Bennett of this town, Miss Eleanor L. Morin of Amherst, Miss Olive Bullard of Clinton and Mrs. Edward S. Lindo of Allston, cousin of the bride. Stanley A. Flower of Amherst was best man and ushers were Leon T. Lombard, brother of the bridegroom, Leon Cone of North Brookfield, Luther Jr. and Leonard Hayes, brothers of the bride.

The bride's dress worn by her

The bride's dress, worn by her mother at her wedding 25 years ago, was fashioned of ivory satin and handmade Bohemian lace with court train. Her long veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and snapdragons. The maid of honor wore a gown of pink chenille embroidered taffeta and carried pink roses and blue bachelor buttons, and the bridesmaids wore gowns of blue chenille embroidered taffeta and carried shasta daisies and blue delphinium.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Guests from Pittsfield included Mr. and Mrs. Wendell M. Lombard and son, William, Miss Carol Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lombard, Truman L. Lombard, Elmer J. Chandler, Mrs. E. L. Gilson and Mrs. G. J. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lombard left on a wedding trip to the White Mountains and Maine. They will make their home at 133 Strong Avenue, Pittsfield.

Mr. Lombard is a graduate of the Pittsfield High School and Massachusetts State College, class of 1938, and is employed in the plastics division, General Electric Company. Mrs. Lombard is a graduate of Becker Business College, Worcester, and has been employed as a secretary at Amherst College for the past three years.
