

Mrs. Evelyn G. Gill

Mrs. Evelyn G. Gill, wife of James D. Gill, former collector of internal revenue, died yesterday at the Beverly Hospital after a long illness, at the age of 71 years. She was a native of Fall River, but had spent most of her life at Springfield. For many seasons she had passed her summers at the Gill summer home at 40 Lothrop street, Beverly. She is survived by her husband, one son, James M. Gill of Springfield, and a sister, Mrs. Hattie C. Long, wife of Judge C. L. Long of Springfield. The body will be taken to Springfield, where funeral services will be held at the Gill home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Boston Herald

Boston, MA

Monday, August 27, 1923

Page 2, Columns 3 & 4