
Former Coldwater Resident Is Dead

COLDWATER — Mrs. Jessie L. Weage, 84, a former Coldwater resident and a former president of the State Rebekah Lodge Assembly, died at the Odd Fellows Home in Jackson Monday after a long illness.

She also was a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist, the Chicago musicians union and the Hawthorne Club of Coldwater. Mrs. Weage, the widow of Spencer Weage, lived in the Coldwater area for many years before becoming a resident of the Odd Fellows home several years ago.

She is survived by a stepdaughter, Mrs. Jane Titus of Coldwater.

The body will be returned to Coldwater for services.

Battle Creek Enquirer

Battle Creek, MI

Tuesday, November 1, 1960

Page 14, Column 3