BRUSH-GATES WEDDING IS SOCIALLY PROMINENT

Takes Place in Presence of Very Close Friends and Relatives-Ceremony Read by the Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks-Home Is Beautifully Decorated.

nence was that of Miss Natalle L. Brush, daughter of Mrs. John Brush, to A. Bennett Gates of Indianapolis and Dayton, On which took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the former Brush home, 1435 North Meridian street. Only very close friends and relatives were present. The sun room of the home was beautifully arranged with a background of cedar trees and other greenery. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks, before an improvised altar of white flowering branches, studded yellow calla lilies, and long sprays of yellow forsythia with cathedral candles in gold holders on either A color scheme of gold and white was used in the decorations throughout the house. The rooms were a profusion of greenery, white lilacs, valley lilles, snapdragons, hyacinths, forsythia, yellow roses and narcissuses. Bridal airs preceded the ceremony were played by Mrs. Franc Wilhite Webber, harpist, and Miss Yuba Wilhite, violin-cellist. During the ceremony the soft strains of "Der-Melstersinger" were heard.

A spring wedding of social promi- A tunic below the knees was banded with pearls and orange blossoms, and edged with old lace. A very long satin court train, which hung in two panels from the shoulders, was edged with chiffen on each side and joined at the bottom with a heavily beaded and pearled band. Her tulle veil was fastened with a head dress of pearls and orange blossoms and the face veil was worn just below the eyes. She carried a hand bouquet of white spray orchids.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS.

A small reception followed the ceremony. Antique silver service was used and white tapers lighted the dining room. Yellow orchids and white lilacs formed the table centerpiece. The wedding cake was a large gold and white one. The confections, ices and bonbons, were in gold and white,

Mr. and Mrs. Gates left immediately for a month's wedding trip. Gates's going-away costume smart three-piece suit of blue, with hat to match.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Postmaster General and Mrs. New, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. William H. Lee, Minneapolis,

WEARS SHELL PINK HAT. The bride entered on the arm of her godfather, Harry S. New, postmaster general. She was given in marriage by her mother, who wore a charming gown of white chiffon fashioned in straight, plain lines. The bride wore a pretty hat and slippers of shell pink and carried a lovely bouquet of lilies of the valley, surrounded with pink rosebuds. There were no attendants for the bride. R. D. Patterson of Dayton was best man. The bride was beautiful in her bridal gown of white satin, made quite simply, with long, tight sleeves and very straight lines.

Mrs. William H. Lee, Minneapolis,
Minn,
Mrs. Mason Starring Jr., Philipse
Manor, N. Y.
Mrs. Hugh J. McGowan of this city, who has just returned from Florida.
Mrs. H. A. Schlotzhauer Jr., Winter Park, Fla., and
, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Gardner
and Colin Gardner, Middletown, O., and the following guests were from Dayton, O.:

Messrs. and Mesdames
Joseph Dart Jr.

Messrs. and Mesdame Joseph Dart Jr. R. D. Patterson, Robert King. Nelson Talbott, John M. Beres.

The Indianapolis Star

Indianapolis, IN Wednesday, April 27, 1926

Page 4, Columns 5 & 6