
COL. S. F. SCOTT DEAD.

Former Postmaster of Kansas City Expires Suddenly.

Kansas City, Mo.: Col. Samuel F. Scott, formerly postmaster of this city, died suddenly early Friday of apoplexy, aged 56 years.

Colonel Scott was born in Port Hope, Canada. At the age of 16 he enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifty-third Illinois Volunteer Infantry and at the time of his death was said to be the youngest living volunteer of the Civil War.

Marble Hill Press

Marble Hill, MO

Thursday, November 16, 1905

Page 4, Column 2