

---

An Elegant Wedding:

---

An elegant wedding took place last evening at 6:30 p. m., at the residence of Dr. E. A. Pond on Main street. The contracting parties were Miss Adela A. Pond, daughter of Dr. Pond, and Frank S. Atwell, cashier of the National bank of Port Henry. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. J. G. Johnson. There was a large number present, consisting of young people, friends of the bride, and the immediate friends and neighbors of the family, and friends from Port Henry, Crown Point, Vergennes, Boston, Cambridge, Chelsea, Bellows Falls, etc. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. The ceremony was very happily and impressively performed by Mr. Johnson. The ushers were Mr. E. R. Morse, F. H. Chapman and J. H. Williams. After the ceremony a very nice spread was served.

The presents were numerous and elegant. Miss Pond is a very interesting and highly esteemed young lady and Rutland society will be sorry to lose her. Mr. Atwell is a prominent young gentleman of Port Henry. We extend to the newly married couple our hearty congratulations. They left on the 9:30 p. m. train last night for New York and thence South.

---

The Rutland Daily Herald

Rutland, VT

Tuesday, February 6, 1883