
Deaths.

In this town, Dec. 28, Mrs. Beulah Lombard, 76. On Friday last, Mr. Orange Hoisington, 73.

In Hartford, Quechee Village, Jan. 3d, of consumption, Mrs. Mary M. Marsh, wife of Levi H. Marsh, 28.—In Norwich, Dec. 28, Mr. William Hopson, aged 65

Frozen to death in the woods in Westminster, John Davis, of Rockingham, a Revolutionary Pensioner. He had been for some time deranged, and had strayed away from home and was found dead, last week Friday, age about 80.—In Townsend, John Howe, 76. Ebenezer M'Calvin, a Revolutionary Pensioner, 79.—In Plainfield, Elijah Perry, Esq., 53.—In Brattleboro', Sarah, wife of John R. Blake, Esq., 32.—Rocta S., wife of Richard A. Blodgett, 19.—In Shoreham, Polly, wife of Wm. Johnson, 54.—In Barton, Olive, wife of Stephen Dexter, 68.

In Tinmouth, 12th ult. Hon. Elisha Clark, 87—adjutant at Bennington battle, and afterwards appointed commissary general by Washington. He was a justice of the peace 50 years, judge of probate 14 years, and member of the legislature 16 years.

Vermont Chronicle

Bellows Falls, VT

Wednesday, January 9, 1839

Page 3, Column 4