

ETNA

Etna, March 2—The Woman's Community club, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis last Friday, was largely attended.

At the special monthly meeting of the Christian Endeavor society last Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Baker of Freeville, gave an inspiring address on "World Brotherhood."

The Sunday school will hold a St. Patrick's social on Friday evening, March 11, at the home of Mrs. Clara Smith.

The regular meeting of the Delta Chi society has been postponed for one month.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cotanch are staying for the present in Groton at the home of their son LaVerne, on account of his serious illness. The latest reports, however, are more favorable and his speedy recovery is expected.

Mrs. LaVern Lumbard, who has been ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Tine, LaVern Lumbard, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Lumbard and Mr. and Mrs. William Lumbard attended the funeral of Newton Lumbard at Newark Valley on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wallace and their son Carl of Ithaca were callers at Edgewood Farms on Monday evening.

Amos Caswell and his family of Ithaca visited Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caswell last Sunday.

Mrs. O. K. Rhodes, who has been suffering from an infection in one of her eyes a week past, is improving.

The Cortland Democrat

Cortland, NY

Friday, March 28, 1927

Page 8, Column 4