

Edward D. Wilcox Is Called By Death

TURLOCK, April 20.—Edward D. Wilcox, 84, a resident of Turlock for the last fourteen years, died last night after an extended illness. He was a native of New York. He leaves two sons: R. V. Wilcox, Turlock, and William Wilcox, Denver. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the O'Hara Funeral Home. Interment will be in Turlock Cemetery.

Modesto News-Herald

Modesto, CA

Friday, April 21, 1933

Page 12, Column 2