
F. M. LUMBARD'S Troupe gave one of their entertainments in this village last Thursday evening. Although the number in attendance was small compared with what it should have been, those who were present found themselves amply remunerated for time and money spent and expended. The music consisted of vocal and instrumental pieces. Frank is hard to beat on the violin or in singing comic or sentimental songs. Miss Kate Lumbard proved herself a very fine organist, as well as a superior soprano singer. While Miss Maggie fills the bill as an alto singer. The whole entertainment was, as advertised, chaste and becoming a first-class concert. Come again; and we trust you will receive, what you richly merit, a better patronage.
