
Music Studio Opened by Local Teachers

Mrs. Erma Lombard Brixen, teacher of piano, and pupil of the Jenkins' School of Music in Piedmont, and Miss Helen Cochrane have opened a studio in the Doyle building in Fourth street, and beginning next week, will receive their pupils there. Both are well-known throughout the county for their splendid work. Miss Cochrane has done a great deal of chorus work in the local schools. Mrs. Brixen who has a studio in Oakland, will come up each Friday and Saturday to teach in this city.
