

---

PHONY CHECK WRITER
ARRESTED IN GEORGIA

---

L. C. Lombard, the rubber check artist, who made his get away from Pocahontas Dec. 7, after he had gyped J. F. O'Brien out of $10 and J. B. Pattee of $25, both also of Pocahontas, was arrested, together with his brother Andrew, at Ashburn, Georgia. News of the arrest was received by authorities at Pocahontas last week.

Both of the Lombards are wanted by Dickinson county officials on an alleged charge of stealing the car in which they made their get-away says the Democrat.

Lombard forged R. M. Freeburg's name to both of the checks cashed at Pocahontas. He had been paroled to Freeburg by the state board of parole.

---

MAMMOTH HORSE INJURED

The Humboldt Republican

Humboldt, IA

Friday, January 17, 1930

Page 12, Column 4