

Emilie Lombard Brooke killed in Mexico crash

Emilie Lombard Brooke, native of Redlands and daughter of a pioneer Redlands family, was killed Wednesday in a head-on collision on the Mexican National Highway 2 in the State of Sonora.

According to the Federal Highway Patrol, Mrs. Brooke, 54, swerved to avoid a parked car and collided with a truck driven by Jose Cordova Madrid who was uninjured.

Mrs. Brooke had been in Redlands visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles S. Lombard, and other relatives and friends. She was returning to Guadalajara where she has lived for five years when the accident occurred.

She was the daughter of the late Dr. C. S. Lombard, prominent early day Redlands resident, and was reared in this community, graduating from Redlands High school in 1926. During her lifetime, Mrs. Brooke traveled extensively, returning to Redlands some years ago and then moving to Mexico.
