Thanksgiving Wedding In Sacred Heart

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Martin left for an airplane trip to Florida following their Thanksgiving Day wedding in Sacred Heart Church, at which the Reverend Victor I. Kennedy officiated.

The bride is the former Miss Marguerite White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White of Maryland avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Martin of the East End.

The bride wore a wedding dress of white velvet fashioned with a

V-neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt with a long train. Her veil was trimmed in orange blossoms, and reached to the end of the train. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

Her sister, Mrs. E. Earl Sneathen, as matron of honor, wore rust velvet, and the bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Hunter, Mrs. Alfred Mercer and Mrs. John Kress, wore olive green velvet, with bonnet-shaped hats to match. The attendants carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and pompons tied with talisman ribbon. Barbara Ann Monks, as flower girl, wore the same color as the matron of honor, and carried a colonial bouquet.

Henry C. Martin Jr. was best man and Albert Mercer, Edward Hyde, Frank Staniser and Theodore Benson ushered.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the Hotel Schenley, with a reception in the afternoon in the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside in the East End on their return from the South.
