
MORSE—LUMBARD.

Two Anaconda Society People Were Married Yesterday.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Earle Lumbard and Miss Lillie Mae Morse were married at the Presbyterian church in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. B. Cleland in the presence of a large number of friends. It was the most beautiful affair of the kind ever witnessed in Anaconda. The church was decorated with palms, which formed a dense background of green for the bridal party. James Whitehill acted as best man and Miss Cora Morse as maid of honor. The ushers were William McEchern and Daniel Welch. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Morse, 506 Cherry street.

The bride wore a gown of white organdy profusely trimmed with lace and ribbon. She carried a large bunch of white roses. The maid of honor wore a lavender organdy over silk of the same color and carried pink bridesmaid roses. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lumbard will take a short wedding trip and will be at home at 310 East Fourth street, Anaconda, after Nov. 14. Both of the young people reside in Anaconda and have many friends who wish them happiness.
