

'ROUND AND ABOUT.

Cream of the Week's News in our Near-By Towns—Bolled Down for the Convenience of the Advertiser Readers.

Wells.

Edward Hopson, son of the late Almond Hopson, and a native of this place, was found dead in bed Wednesday morning at the residence of his brother-in-law, O. R. Hopson of this village. Deceased was 56 years of age and has been in failing health for some time. For the past twenty years he was a resident of Saratoga Springs, having come here recently to pass the winter. A wife and two sisters survive, Mrs. O. R. Hopson and Mrs. Clarissa Hosford of Bennington. He was a man universally respected. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, the Rev. J. T. Zorn of Granville, officiated. It is said that Mr. Hopson had been conscious for some time that death was inevitable, and as he was anxious to be buried in in this place, he came here to pass the remainder of his life.

Poultney Advertiser

Poultney, VT

Thursday, January 12, 1899